GUYANA'S DEP. AMBASSADOR GUEST OF PEOPLES TEMPLE

Hon. Claude Worrall, Deputy Ambassador to the Guyanese Embassy to Washington, D.C., addresses the audience of nearly 5,000 people gathered at a testimonial dinner in honor of Bishop Jim Jones. Mr. Worrall, who was seated at the head table along with Bishop and Mrs. Jones, Lt. Governor and Mrs. Mervyn Dymally, California State Assemblyman Willie Brown, and Mayor George Moscone of San Francisco, personally thanked Bishop Jones and the Peoples Temple congregation for their agricultural mission to his country. Perhaps the spirit of the event was best summed up in the words of Lt. Gov. Dymally who was gratified at the Temple's demonstration of racial brotherhood.

"All people can live, work, and love together," he stated. For here was an example of thousands who had come together — blacks, whites, orientals, and young and old alike — in mutual respect and harmony.

Brotherhood is Our Religion

For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty and ye gave me drink:

I was a stranger and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me:

I was sick and ye visited me: I was in prison and ye came unto me.

Then the righteous shall answer Him, saying,

When saw we thee an hungered and fed thee? Or thirsty and gave thee drink?

When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in? Or naked, and clothed thee?

Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison and came unto thee?

Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of These, Ye have done it unto me.
